

March 14, 2002

Congressman Todd Akin to Visit with Residents of Senior Living Community

To give update on 107th Congress including Social Security and pension reform

St. Louis, Mo- On Friday, March 15, Congressman Todd Akin will meet with residents of the Lutheran Senior Services at Breeze Park.. Akin will meet with residents and give a congressional update on the 107th Congress, including issues of particular interest to the retirement community such as Social Security and pension reform.

What:

Congressman Todd Akin will meet with residents of the Lutheran Services Home for the Elderly to discuss the 107th Congress including Social Security and pension reform.

Where:

Lutheran Senior Services at Breeze Park, 600 Breeze Park Drive in St. Charles

When:

3:30 p.m.

Also on the 15th, Akin will visit several other community service organizations prior to meeting with the Lutheran Service residents. That day, Akin will visit United Services Day programs for disabled preschool children in St. Peters and the Salvation Army in O'Fallon.